David and Mary have had a studio in Spring Valley for forty years. During this two day workshop they will each make and finish several pieces. They will also discuss some of the finer points of craftsmanship, the firing process, and glazing techniques. In addition they will talk about making a living as full time potters. The cost of the two day workshop is $125. This workshop is primarily for potters wishing to get new ideas and inspiration. For information or to register: registrar@nottinghamarts.org
