

Scholarship for Summer Workshop in Ceramics at Penland School of Crafts for San Diego County Art Teachers

Silvia Wiedmann 2016 CASD Recipient

2017 CALL FOR APPLICATIONS -- Deadline February 17, 2017

Penland School of Crafts is an international center for craft education dedicated to helping people live creative lives. Located in the Western NC, Penland offers 1-, 2-, and 8-week workshops in books, paper, clay, drawing, glass, iron, metals, painting, photography, printmaking, letterpress, textiles, and wood. Penland welcomes serious students of all levels of experience and backgrounds (minimum age 18). Some workshops are tailored for beginners and some require prior experience; most welcome a range of skill levels. A full list of Penland classes is available at www.penland.org.

The Clay Artists of San Diego Scholarship is a special scholarship for residents of Southern California who teach art in both public and private sectors in the San Diego County. The recipient will receive full tuition, room, and board for a one or two-week summer session in clay at Penland and a stipend of $250 to assist with travel and materials. This scholarship is funded annually by the Clay Artists of San Diego, a non-profit 501c3 organization (<http://www.clayartistsofsandiego.org/>).

To Apply go to www.penland.slideroom.com Scholarship applications must be made online, using Slideroom, by midnight on February 17, including 2 letters of reference. Scholarship applicants pay a nonrefundable $50 processing fee. Applicants will be notified by April 1.
